

Harbor View Presbyterian Church Weekly Newsletter

Let's welcome our new pastor and his family to Charleston and to Harbor View with an old fashion "pound the pastor" with a 21st century twist. Instead of stocking up their kitchen with a pound of butter, pound of sugar, pound of flour, etc., let's inundate them with welcome cards, notes, and gift cards to local grocery stores, home improvement stores, and restaurants. Drop off your card or note to Natalie in the office, or give it to Jan when you see her and we'll make sure to include it with all the others in his office when he arrives on Monday, January 14.

Please drop it off by this Sunday, January 13.

UPCOMING DATES:

The Issues Class will have a special session this today, January 10th, at 12 noon, to begin what we hope will become a monthly study session on the writings of CS Lewis. The first session this Thursday will be led by Father Brian McGreevy, associate pastor at St. Philips Episcopal Church downtown Charleston. Father McGreevy is a lifetime student of the works of CS Lewis and has agreed to offer his knowledge and wisdom of Lewis' writings to the members of our congregation. All members of the congregation and any other interested people are invited to join these sessions.

Presbyterian Women Morning Circle will meet this Tuesday, January 15th at 10:00 a.m. at the Church. We will be studying Lesson 5, "God with Us When We're Powerless." The primary scripture is from 2 Chronicles 20:1-30 and Deuteronomy 20:1-4. Please contact Nancy Andrews (843-795-5399) if you have any questions and/or need help with transportation. Visitors are always welcome!
