

Harbor View Presbyterian Church Weekly Newsletter

THANK YOU to everyone who came out to the Party at the Pastor's House on Saturday! Many thanks also to HVPC's Church Life Chair Tracy Conner for organizing the event.

Class of 2022

Congratulations to our High School graduates: Sophia Benson, Camilla Hays, Will Olson, and Josh Wirth! We'll highlight a Senior each week.

Anna Sofia Benson recently graduated from Academic Magnet High School. While she doesn't yet know what she wants to be when she grows up, she figured Clemson was as good a place as any to start figuring it out. Good luck!

BLESSING BOX GENEROSITY

We have so many wonderful folks who donate to our Blessing Box at Harbor View. On Tuesday, someone made a huge donation that will fill the box three times! So amazing to be a part of the good and helpful things that give the world hope! Thank you everyone so much for your wonderful generosity!

For Father's Day this Sunday, June 19th several of the HVPC ladies will lead the service. Mary Thornley will preach and Karen Rollins, Cathy Chihocky, and Kathy Chessman will assist.

"Honor your father and mother. Then you will live a long time in the land the Lord your God is giving you."

PRAYING
PELICAN MISSIONS

Dear HVPC Congregation,

Please pray for us as we travel to Hazard, KY, located on the eastern side of the state—a small town with limited employment opportunities, and a reputation for drugs and crime. The area's primary industries are coal and timber, and in Hazard 22% of the population live below the poverty line. We will serve alongside two other church groups, much like a Hands of Christ project. We will report to Rae Ann, who we will assist in setting up "block parties" where we will share school supplies, kid-friendly activities, encouragement, and God's love.
