

Harbor View Presbyterian Church Weekly Newsletter

Dear church family,

This Sunday we will gather for worship at James Island County Park, rain or shine. I think it's good to shake things up, do something new! It helps us not to get stuck in a rut. In this case, it reminds us that God is everywhere, not just in church, and we can worship while surrounded by more of God's artwork and less of humanity's work. Being in nature is like walking into God's painting. Even if it rains!

We are also starting our stewardship season. As we think of all God has given us, it reminds us to manage God's gifts with generosity and gratitude. I'm so grateful for each of you and the blessing it has been to be your pastor so far! I have four more Sundays with you, and it is a joy being here. Keep praying for your PNC. They are getting closer to finding the next minister for Harbor View. We know that God already knows, and we pray that the way will be clear.

As you know, when I leave I'll have just a few weeks before opening Church of the Arts in Park Circle. I'll be sure to keep you updated through Scott and Margie, so you can pray for this new church development! My hope is that it reaches people who have dropped out of church or somehow didn't fit. Please pray that God connects me with the people who need this!

Don't hesitate to reach out to me or to Scott if you need a visit, a prayer, or a conversation. We always enjoy connecting with you!

In Christ,

Rev. Tricia
